1. Message from the President on the coronavirus pandemic

The worldwide situation concerning the coronavirus pandemic has impacted the IASS. In consultation with the organizers, the next two Annual Symposia have been postponed, as described in item 3. The online version of the Journal is available, while the printed version will be delayed. The Secretariat in Madrid continues to be operational, but the staff are teleworking. There may be some delays in responding to emails and we ask for your patience. The IASS wishes all members the best in this very special situation, and we hope to return soon to normal operation of the Association.

2. The latest issue of the Journal of the IASS – Vol. 61 (2020) No1, March n. 203 is available on the IASS website

For IASS Members the access to a PDF of the full issue is through the Publications Gateway on the IASS website. Soon, the issue will be available also on the Ingenta website.

You can see the content by clicking here.

Note on printed version delay:

Due to the current coronavirus pandemic, the printed version of this issue will not be sent out until the printing company is again operative.
